

CANCELLATION

We are sorry to say that the concert by the Pearl of Africa Choir and Low Fell Singers has had to be cancelled as , for the first time in 15 years, the choir have been refused visas by the government. This is very disappointing for us but very hard for the choir and the children they support financially in Malawi. They (and we) hope they can return next year to share their joy, enthusiasm and musical skills.

All ticket money and raffle prizes will be returned.

We are also grateful to the Low Fell Singers for their support with this concert and know they'll also be disappointed not to be able to go ahead.

Thanks to the members of our community who had volunteered to help with this event.
