

Revd Lloyd Brown was ordained Deacon by Bishop Paul in the Summer of last year and began the first year of his Curacy in the parishes of St John, Darlington and St Hilda and St Columba, Darlington. Circumstances beyond Lloyds control have caused the need for, his curacy to be moved and so it has been agreed that his training will be transferred to St Helen's and St Chad's, Gateshead, with the date of his Licensing to be confirmed in the near future. Lloyd is married to Mathilde, and they have a dog named Ruby. Lloyd will be getting to know people in his new setting leading up to his licensing. Please pray for Lloyd and Mathilde and Lloyd's next step in his training. Please remember Lloyd and Mathilde in your prayers as they prepare to move and make this transition to be with us in Gateshead
